To the winners: Here's our best.

A private telegram received here this morning says Cleveland carried New York, New Jersey, Illinois and Delaware.

We ask our patrons for a little indulgence this work. We promise a better paper a soon as the election excitement dies out.

WANTED:—A young man of energy and intelligence as local rustler. Good salary. Apply immediately at this office.

We trust our patrons will excuse the scarcity of news and general make up of yesterday's HERALD, as the editor was too ill to attend to business. The paper was gotten out by the comp.

Mrs. Robert Dalzell and her two lovely daughters have arrived in the city and are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Sphon. They will leave for their home in Brownsville in a day or two.—Corpus Christi Caller.

Through the enterprise of some of Brownsville's leading citizens, and the services of Operator Sanborn, bulletins of election returns were received here the night of the election and the day following. Capt. R. M. Dalzell kindly provided a room near the Western Union office, and here those who had contributed towards paying for the dispatches gathered with their friends to hear the news Tuesday night. The dispatches which were placed on the bulletin board were read with the greatest interest, and there was much excitement over the various reports. The great interest in both the state and national campaigns kept the party there far into the night, and early morning found many there again eagerly reading the latest reports.

A New and Thrilling Serial.

We have made exclusive arrangements for publishing as a serial story the famous M. Quad's latest novel, "The Golden Caves." It is a tale of treasure seeking in the far west, and we are sure the succeeding chapters, as they appear in these columns, will be eagerly followed by our readers. The story is beautifully illustrated.

Cod fish, sausages, corn-beef, in barrels, and salt-bacon at Barreda's store.

"The Golden Caves."

M. Quad, whose Linekirk club and Arizona Kicker have been household themes for years, has just completed a thrilling story with the above title, which we have made exclusive arrangements for publishing. It will appear at an early day, and our readers should keep a sharp lookout lest they miss the opening chapters.

A New Writer's Career.

There is no more popular writer in America today than M. Quad (Charles B. Lewis), whose latest novel, "The Golden Caves," we have completed arrangements for publishing in these columns. Don't miss a chapter.

Banner Clark County.

Special to THE HERALD. Rio Grande City, Nov. 10.—Starr county gives Clark sixteen hundred and fifty votes Hogg three and Houston one. Russell, for district judge 1630, and his opponent Turner, 11. Brewster for congress beats Crain about one hundred, Republicans carrying the county about two hundred.

Playel

A second hand upright Playel piano, Cheap for cash or on easy monthly payments. See E. J. Delfraisse.

Election News.

Dispatches from San Antonio say there is nothing certain as to the vote for governor. Hogg men claim the state, while Clark men are positive their candidate has it. Official count of all returns will be decided. General opinion in San Antonio is that Clark is elected. Hogg received only three votes in Starr county.

A telegram from Crain says only meager returns have been received but he thinks his election certain.

No received this afternoon, owing to commercial business being transacted over the wires.

The estimated majorities in Cameron county are as follows: Hogg 1000, Crain 1100, Judge J. C. Russell, 1500.

Republicans here claim Brewster's election.

Latest from San Antonio: Latest advices give Clark a majority with some of his strongholds to hear from. Bexar county will give him at least 2500 majority. Nothing certain is known, but it looks favorable to Clark.

Judge J. C. Russell's election is conceded by all.

Nothing definite can be learned regarding the election of legislative candidates.

There is some doubt as to whether Hogg or Clark will receive a majority in Cameron county.

Crain's election is certain.

A Youthful Criminal.

New York, Nov. 4.—One of the youngest criminals who ever stood before a New York judge to be sentenced for murder will today receive his penalty from the lips of Judge Martine. John McCam is the sixteen years old slayer of Richmond Matener, and will be sentenced today to life imprisonment. McCam was jointly indicted with Rigby McElvaney for the killing of Matener on August 27, in front of an East Forty-seventh street saloon. The trouble was over the possession of a pail of beer. McElvaney is now to be tried as an accessory.
